

A TASTE OF FOOD SCIENCE

Teagasc Food Research Centre is hosting a FAMILY FRIENDLY OPEN EVENING FOR THE PUBLIC Thursday November 17th, 6.30pm to 9pm

TALKS

Exciting talks given by our scientists

What exactly is gluten? What makes the perfect steak? What do food labels mean? Food as medicine?

DEMOS

Interactive demos

Learn how to make sausages, check how clean your hands really are, find out how we use all our senses to relate to food.

MUSIC

Music for the evening

With our in-house band of scientists, The First Authors!

BAKE!

Channel your inner Mary Berry

Enjoy a cup of tea while sampling our scientists' bakes as they compete in the Great Scientist Bake Off!

WHO

Open to all the public – FAMILY-FRIENDLY EVENT!

WHAT

Teagasc Festival of Farming and Food

WHERE

Teagasc Food Research Centre, Ashtown, Dublin 15

WHEN

6.30pm-9.00pm, Thursday November 17, 2016

REGISTER ONLINE AT <http://bit.ly/tasteoffoodscience>

A shuttle bus will run between the Halfway House, Navan Road and Ashtown Rail Station to the Teagasc Event Centre.